

IN FEB. BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Defend
Baltimore's
Black History

SAVE* READS DRUG STORE

PROTEST Sat. Feb 18th

12 NOON

Lexington & Howard Sts.
Site of the former Reads Store

Baltimore Afro-American
218 STUDENTS ARRESTED;
$90,000 BAIL SET FOR 150

Read's Drug Store is the site of one of the first sustained and successful civil rights sit-ins in the country. Very few people nationally are aware of this important fact. Mayor Stephanie Rawlings-Blake and other city officials want this historic landmark destroyed.

Come out to protest against this injustice and celebrate Baltimore's Black History!

Why is this important for everyone!

Saving Reads and elevating the history of this period is relevant to the urgent struggle for jobs and justice, education, housing and health care.

The struggles fought for by the brave women and men of that period have lessons for us in our battle for justice today. They are important for all people as the past can illuminate the future and what needs to be done today.

Don't let the wealthy developers and their friends in political office tear this important landmark down. Our immediate fight is to force the City administration which still owns the building to put on a roof, so that illegal "demolition by neglect" doesn't occur.
