

7th Annual Workers' Celebration Brat Fry

April 15, 2012
Emil Mazey Hall, Sheboygan, WI.

To the Officers and Members of all Local Unions:

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The 7th Annual Workers' Celebration Brat Fry is called for April 15, 2012 at Emil Mazey Hall, 5425 Superior Ave., Sheboygan, WI, from 11:00 am to 7:00 pm.

All are encouraged to attend this event, sponsored by the Education, Women's and Veterans' Committees of UAW Locals 833, 1472 and the Sheboygan County Labor Council, AFL-CIO.

The 7th Annual Workers' Celebration is a celebration of workers, retirees and their contributions; understanding that workers built this country, and labor did much building a middle class now and again under attack by conservatives.

With workers in general and organized labor in particular under pressure and attack not seen in three decades, the hope is to provide a day filled with music, celebration, food and fellowship. The on-going battle for workers' rights offers this event to be a strong showing of solidarity by labor and the supporting community.

Information on goals of the contemporary labor movement will be available. The assorted pamphlets are from the UAW Education Department and AFL-CIO, courtesy of the Local 833 Education Committee.

All proceeds from the event go to local area and state veteran charities. We are seeking donations of $100 to help defray costs and expenses, or an amount your Executive Board or membership deems appropriate.

"Hard Times Call for Good Prices" Brats, burgers, baked beans and beverages will be available from 11:00 am to closing at "rock-bottom" prices; carry outs available.

Beers $1; Single Sandwiches $1.50; Doubles $2.50

DJ AudioHype from 11 am to 2 pm. Live music from 2:00 pm to 6:00 pm will be provided by Sheboygan-based "The Buffalo Joe Band." Combining soaring harmonies and dazzling guitar and keyboard, they are consistently one of the area's biggest draws. Not to be missed; if you've never heard them live, now's the chance for an eclectic mix of rock and blues, performed by a group of stellar musicians! Incredible raffles run throughout the day!

An April date was chosen as a less hectic alternative to traditionally observed Labor Day to coincide with the observance of Workers' Memorial Day 13 days later, honoring those workers who have died in the workplace, while vowing to fight for the living and "give workers a voice for a change."

Emil Mazey Hall is located at 5425 Superior Avenue, Sheboygan, WI, 53081.

Directions:

From West; 23E to Cty. Y (Kohler exit), turn left (North) on Y, turn right (East) on Superior Ave. Emil Mazey Hall is on the right.

From North or South; I-43 to 23W to Cty. Y (Kohler exit), proceed as above.

For inquiries or more information, please contact Emil Mazey Hall, or call: 920-458-2173 or toll-free 1-800-870-3829

The 7th Annual Workers' Celebration Brat Fry is open to the public, and workers and their families are warmly invited.

This promises to be a fun-filled day and a statement of solidarity for those interested and involved in supporting workers and their rights everywhere. Please come out and enjoy the food, the beer, the music, and the camaraderie. We all work in some capacity; now's the time to celebrate it!

Fraternally,

Dave Boucher
President,
UAW Local 833

Shireen Kempf
Chair,
1472 Women's Committee

Michael Zimmermann
President,
Sheboygan County Labor Council,
AFL-CIO

