

Statewide City Worker Summit

Sat., Nov. 5
11am-3pm
Greensboro

407 E. Washington St.

(Pull around to Workers Center in back of building)

- ★ Develop a statewide program
- ★ Build Statewide movement to empower city workers & take on bad state government
- ★ Learn about victories with workers from other cities
- ★ Learn lessons, best practices to strengthen union

DURHAM: City workers there hosted 10 weeks of pickets in front of City Hall this spring winning the largest wage increase in 10 years, and raising minimum wage to $15 per hour in next 2 years.

GREENSBORO: City workers there started a new union 3 months ago & have been reaching out across the city, studying policies and building.

RALEIGH: Sanitation workers staged a two-day strike, Sept, 2006. This is the 10th Anniversary. Workers won many improvements.

GREENVILLE (Below): Sanitation workers in 2011 staged a walk-out and forced the city to address their concerns.

CHARLOTTE: City workers staged several weeks of picket lines in front of city hall in 2012, winning payroll deduction and meetings with City Manager's office.

