

RALLY FOR OUR STUDENTS: NO PUNISHMENT FOR PROTESTING HATE SPEECH

Steps of Low Library, Morningside Campus
Monday, Oct. 23 | 11 am

Join us in support of students facing disciplinary action and demand that Columbia drop its investigation into the alleged "disruption" of the CU College Republican's Tommy Robinson event. Columbia has a history of abusing its institutional power by intimidating students, workers, and the Harlem community.

We refuse to let this be another opportunity for them to do so behind closed doors.

ON MONDAY, MAKE YOUR VOICE HEARD:

CALL PRESIDENT BOLLINGER: 212-854-9970

CALL SUZANNE GOLDBERG @ the Office of University Life: 212-854-0411

CALL PROVOST JOHN COATSWORTH: 212-854-2404

TO DEMAND THAT OUR STUDENTS ARE NOT PUNISHED. TELL THEM:

"I am calling to demand that Columbia drop its investigation into students who protested a violent Islamophobe on Oct. 10. The students were exercising free speech. I am concerned that the University is punishing predominantly black and brown students for speaking up against people who do not think their lives matter."
